

How Middle School Students Travel to and from School

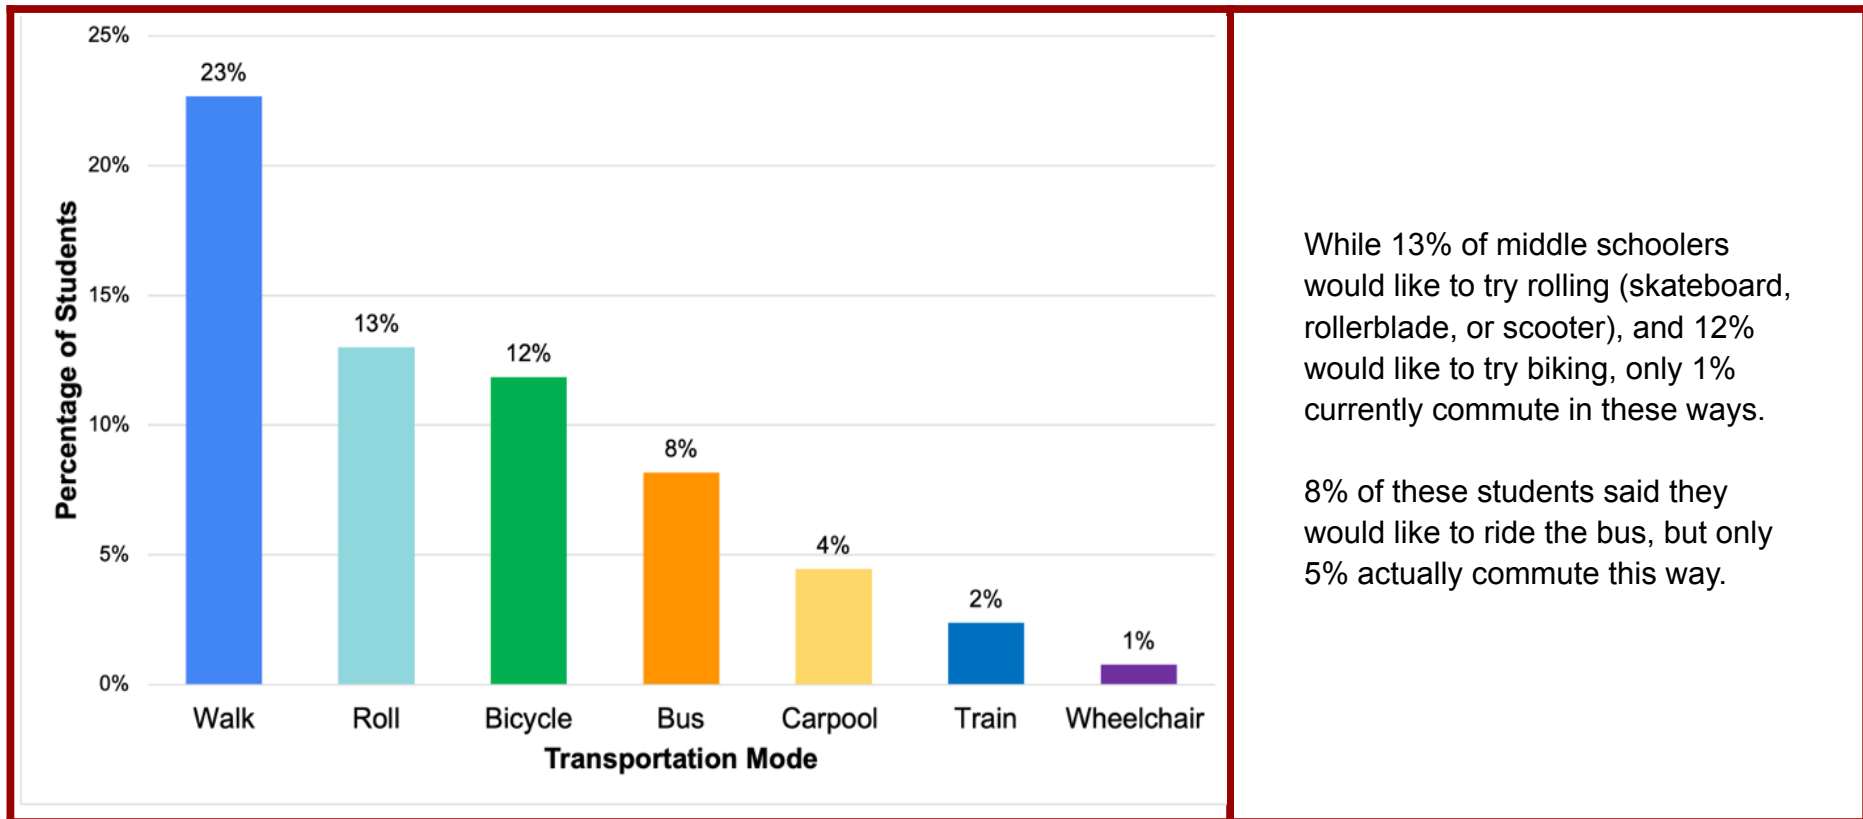

56% of 6-8 grade students walk TO school, compared to 68% who walk FROM school. Walking FROM school is a 21% relative increase over walking TO school.

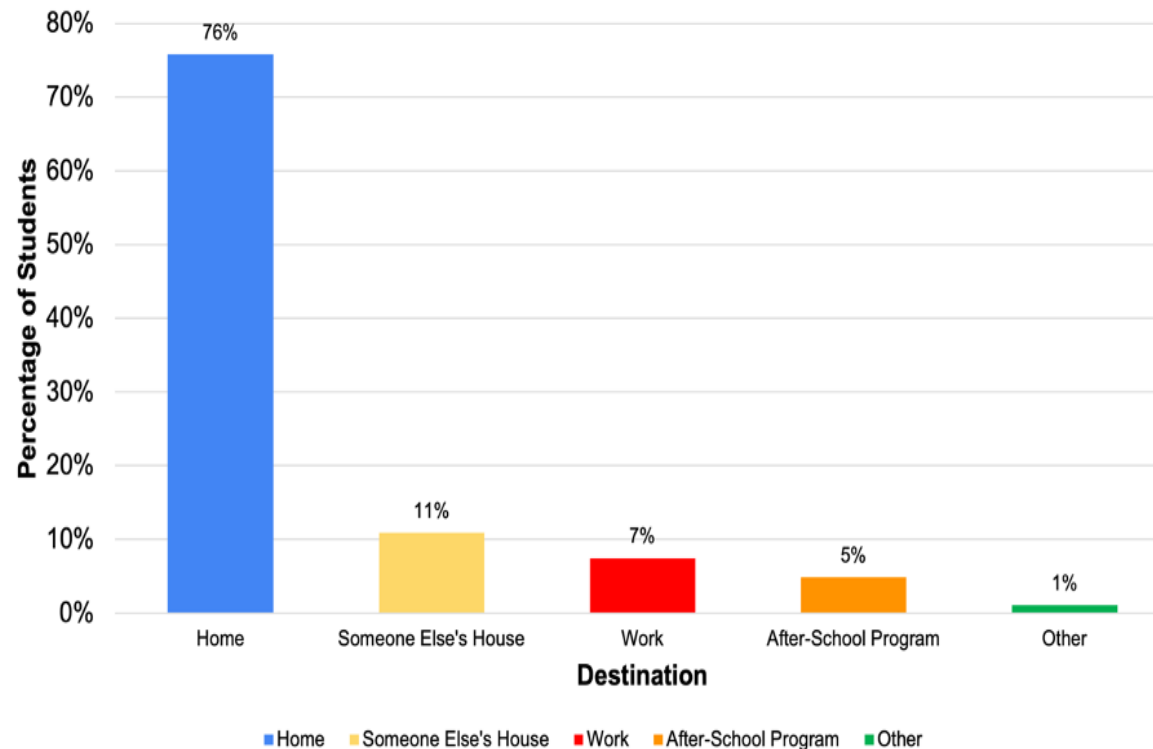

35% of this age group drive TO school and only 24% drive FROM school. Driving FROM school is a 46% relative decrease from those driving TO school.

Transportation Middle School Students Would Like to Try

Where Middle School Students Go After School

76% of middle school students reported that they go home after school. Only 5% attend an after-school program, which is the lowest level of all age groups.

7% of middle schoolers said that they go to work after school.

